Teen Musician Application Form

Port Phillip rendition of Intergenerational Duets

17-year-old Leela Gibson John with 100-year-old Marion Dorothy Wood.

About

Intergenerational Duets is a community arts project that promotes friendships, exchanges and learning across the generations. Each senior musician will be partnered with a teenage musician. Together - over an eight-week period participants will get to know one another, go on to plan, rehearse and perform a duet of their choosing; through a program of guided intergenerational collaboration.

Each pair will be connected through a love of music.

Are you a Port Phillip-based Musician aged 15–17?

We are looking for teenage musicians to participate in this program. If you are interested in doing so, please read through the following details and submit an application.
