Senior Musician Application Form

Port Phillip rendition of Intergenerational Duets

17-year-old Leela Gibson John with 100-year-old Marion Dorothy Wood.

About

Intergenerational Duets is a community arts project that promotes friendships, exchanges and learning across the generations. Each senior musician will be partnered with a teenage musician. Together – over an eight-week period participants will get to know one another, go on to plan, rehearse and perform a duet of their choosing; through a program of guided intergenerational collaboration.

Each pair will be connected through a love of music.

Are you a Port Phillip-based Musician aged 65+?

We are looking for musicians, aged 65 and over to participate in this program. If you are interested in doing so, please read through the following details and submit an application.
